

PLAYGYM!

New rules for December 2020:

- All bookings must be made in advance via our club website. If you have not booked online, you will not be permitted into the session.
- The foam pit is strictly out of use until further notice. No parent or child is permitted to enter the foam pit under any circumstances.
- Only one adult per child. No additional parents or guardians are permitted into the gym.
- All children and adults must wear socks for the duration of the class.
- All adults must wear a facemask or face covering for the duration of the class.
- No large bags will be permitted into the gym – small bags and essentials only. Prams can be left in our car park area or in our foyer if raining.
- All adults and children must remain socially distanced whilst in our facility.
- Please note: Our changing facilities are currently out of use. All toilets are in use as normal.
